

Welcome to the Basque Museum!

« Hemen sartzen dena, bere etxean da!
He who enters here is at home... »

The motto of the Basque Museum sets the tone. Visitors know they are welcome in this Musée de France that, in addition to an exceptionally rich ethnographic collection dedicated to the Basque Country, offers temporary exhibitions, tailored visits to suit your schedule, workshops, events and activities, a shop, and more besides.

Situated in the heart of the old town, the museum displays a large number of objects and works of art, mostly collected at the beginning of the 20th century, in an exhibition area covering 3.000 m². Also discover the history of Bayonne as a sea and river port at the confluence of Basque, Gascon and Jewish cultures...
